Rules

Contents: 60 cards

It is so easy to say something nice to someone and make them happy!

In pairs, groups, anywhere and everywhere.

For group, family and social bonding.

Talk Up game is all about good atmosphere and compliments.

How to Play?

Sit down in a circle.

At your turn, take a card and complete the sentence referring to one of the participants of your choice and say something nice. It is recommended to find the participant to whom the sentence mostly fits.

The next participant is invited to take out a new card and complete the sentence referring to another participant.

Other Gameplay Options

- Write the names of the participants on notes. Pick a note, take a card and complete the sentence, referring to the participant whose name is on the note.
- Everyone completes the same sentence, each referring to the person sitting next to them.
- Celebrating a birthday? Everyone says something nice to the one who celebrates birthday using the card they have picked up.
